ADGA SANCTIONED OPEN DOE SHOW

A. RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. ADGA rules shall govern.
2. 4-H goat show starts at 10 AM. ADGA open class show to follow at approximately Noon. All animals must be checked in with the show secretary and the vet by 9:30 AM .
3. This show shall be sanctioned for the following breeds: Alpine, LaMancha, Nubian, Oberhasli, Saanen, Toggenburg, All other purebreeds and recorded grades.
4. The Junior and Senior shows are not separately sanctioned.
5. Base date for computing the animal's age is the day the animal is judged.
6. Health: All goats must be vet checked on the grounds before unloading. They must have been checked by a vet within 30 days of the show and have a health certificate from that vet. New York State health standards apply. Out of state exhibitors need entry permits. Vets decision is final.
7. Judges placing on all places is final.
8. Entries may not be added or withdrawn from the classes after the judging has started.
9. All dairy goats are entered at the sole risk of the owners.
10. There will be no pre-show milkout.
11. Does with more than 18 hours of milk will be discriminated against.
12. Exhibitors are asked to provide their own buckets, hay, feed and chains. There is some room to tie animals up around the ring. Exhibitors are asked to clean up their area before they leave.
13. Entries permitted to leave at conclusion of show.

B. ELIGIBILITY

1. ADGA rules shall govern.
2. Only American Dairy Goat Association, American Goat Society and Canadian Goat Society registered, recorded or applied for animals that are recognized by ADGA as dairy animals may be shown in official American Dairy Goat Association shows.
3. A registration or recordation certificate is required for all animals six months of age or older and may be required for animals under six months of age if the show so chooses.
4. A registration or recordation certificate or a stamped duplicate application or stamped faxed duplicate application showing the date received by the office is required for all animals under 6 months of age. Show officials shall not accept copies of the aforesaid, any other document in lieu of them, or information obtained from the ADGA office via telephone or other means.
5. The document specified for that age animal to be shown must be presented to the show secretary before judging shall begin and MUST be checked by the show secretary for verification or registration/recordation information.
6. All names included on one ID number constitute only one membership; therefore only one exhibitor. Only the ID on the registration/recordation certificate or on the stamped duplicate application is proof of ownership.
7. Persons showing animals whose registration/recordation certificates have signed transfers that have not been processed by the ADGA office must show those animals as agent for the owner shown on ADGA records.
8. Animals with natural horns shall not be shown.
